

Dear Judges

My name is Ruangwith Viwathanatepa and I writing to let you know about the messy process of Celsius distribution especially for those of us living outside the US. Please help us.

I living in Thailand and log in to the app via apple ID with hide my E-mail function on, through out the whole process I only received one relevant E-mail from Stretto informed that they can not find my Coinbase account as shown below. But I my understanding is that I will be mailed check in USD (Thailand address) which I have not receive any further update or instruction since. No voting for distribution last year, no claim code this year nothing. I can only keep up with what is happening thank to Aaron Bennett.

My current address is correct and, but the when and how much is not clear. This is really stressful knowing that Celsius and Stretto believed they have already reached out to every one and any attempt to contract support face with a blanket bot response.

Thanking for listening to my concern despite your incredibly busy schedule, god bless you.
